How We Work

1. Initial Consultation: The first step in the process towards achieving the kitchen of your dreams is to schedule a showroom appointment for an initial consultation which you can book on our website. In the initial consultation, we want to hear about what you want your kitchen to look like, and your dream appliances are available for a visit fee of $1,250 which can be paid on our website and will be applied to your kitchen purchase, but is not refundable.

2. Retainer: Based on your initial consultation, we will develop a written budget proposal, and develop initial design drawings so you understand what the budget covers. If you agree that the budget is acceptable, we will require a retainer payment to move forward to the "Design Phase". The retainer will be applied to your kitchen cabinetry purchase and is not refundable if you do not purchase your kitchen from us. Retainers are the greater of $5,000 or 10% of your kitchen budget.

3. Design Phase: In the design phase, we come to your home and take detailed measurements and make an inventory of your storage needs. We will release our drawings to your contractor, architect, interior designer, and condo or co-op building. We will also determine the finishes and order the door sample for your project.

4. Contract Phase: At this point, you are ready to order your kitchen. We will review with you the photographic renderings of your kitchen. We will also walk you through the dimensioned technical drawings, storage solutions, door samples and finish samples for your approval. After review and approval we will move to contract signing and require your deposit payment for the

5. Site Coordination: This is the second part of what we do to ensure your kitchen installation goes quickly. Townhouse Kitchens spends a great deal of time on your construction site with the general contractor checking framing dimensions, plumbing roughs, and electrical requirements. While your contractor is fully responsible for these items, delays can be prevented if we work hand in hand with your general contractor to make sure that no requirement for your kitchen is overlooked. This service is included in your kitchen cabinetry contract and goes a long way to ensuring a smooth installation!

6. Installation Phase: This is the moment that every homeowner waits for... the delivery! Ten business days prior to delivery, we will request the remaining 45% of the cabinetry purchase price as shown in the contract. We will bring the cabinets into your home with our insured professional cabinet movers, then our experienced carpenters will take over. Most cabinet installations are completed within one week. Countertops, backsplash and plumbing will follow in the ensuing 3-5 weeks after cabinetry installation.

7. Final Unveiling: At this point, your contractor is done and ready for you to move in! At move in, we will review all your in-cabinet accessories, and any accidental finish damages that may have happened during construction. Our goal is to make sure that you are happy with the finished project. Your final 5% will be due at move in, and we wish you the very best culinary experience in your new home!

Things We Don't Do: Townhouse Kitchens is not a construction company so you will need a general contractor for the construction. Examples of construction services that should be provided by a general contractor are demolition, application for building permits, co-op or condo alteration agreements and requirements, licensed insured plumber,

PROOFREADING

Proofreading can be vital for spotting mistakes, plus identifying potential improvements to your writing that really takes things to the next level and make your words shine.

By identifying superficial flaws, we will help you produce higher-quality documents; crisper, tighter copy that is smooth and enjoyable to read, gets your message across and helps you achieve your business aims.

Different from editing, proofreading is the final step in the editing process.

WE OFFER THIS AS AN IN-HOUSE ADD-ON, PRIOR TO BEGINNING OUR DESIGN AND/OR PRINT SERVICES WITH YOU.

COPYWRITING

As well as allowing us to take the stress out of design and print for you, why not consider doing the same for copywriting too? We can help take care of this as part of the package, working with you to help get those all-important key messages across, through quality text that shines.

Whether its menus for a café or restaurant, wording on a leaflet, or engaging copy for your website, please let us know if you would like us to help with this element of your job.

Perhaps you already have some text but could do with some copyediting?

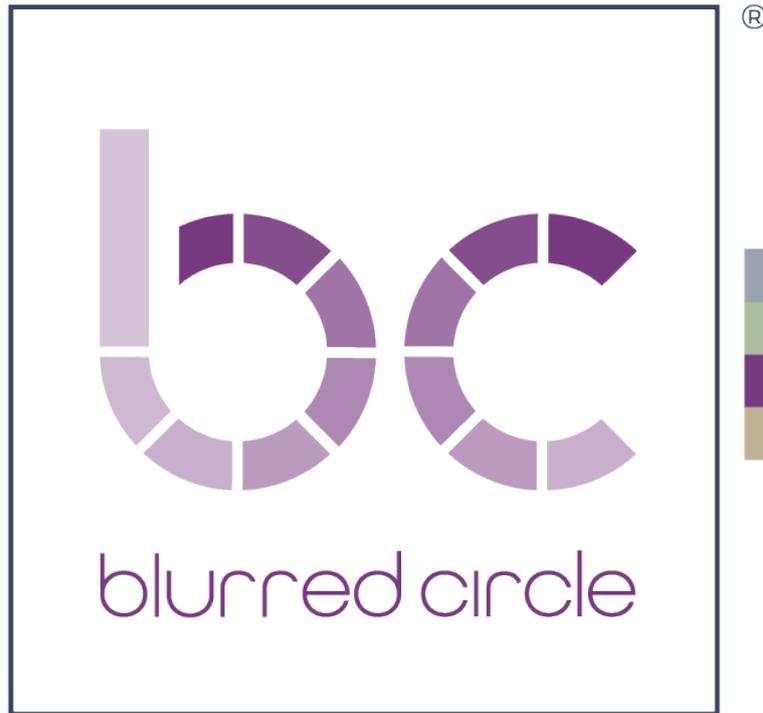

WE CAN HELP TAKE IT TO THE NEXT LEVEL

If you are considering asking us to help with copywriting or copyediting, in addition to design and print and/or proofreading, please allow extra time for this part of the process.

Different from editing, proofreading is the final step in the editing process.

We offer this as an in-house add-on, prior to beginning our design and/or print services with you.

CONSULTANCY

PRINT

Why spend time attempting to manage your own project when you can have us on hand?

Blurred Circle have a vast knowledge of the whole commercial print industry, from variable digital print to sheet fed lithographic printing and large format printing.

You will benefit from our size and scale which means we can deliver cost effective solutions.

Blurred Circle have the experience and capability to handle all of your print service requirements. Whether this is a flyer or postcard, a catalogue or brochure, PUR book or your Point of Sale (POS) and exhibition printing.

With our suppliers relentless investment in new technologies your work will be produced using the latest cutting-edge equipment ensuring the highest level of print quality and finish.

Blurred Circle uses our vast list of trade suppliers to relay their knowledge and expertise, price and quality to all of your projects.

What is the difference between a printer and a print consultancy specialist?

Blurred Circle are a print consultant, we simply manage all of your printing elements from quotation to design (if required) then completion and delivery of the project. The benefit of a print management specialist is to remove the stress from you and allow you to continue to work on other projects.

A printer will have to invest money in different print equipment. Different print projects require different machines, therefore it is not feasible to print all jobs in-house. All high-street / online printers will outsource most of their printing, either to a central warehouse or third party company.

How printing with Blurred Circle works?

The process can start at the initial graphic design stage, we will advise on size, format, paper weight, material and print finish. We will also advise on your quantities to ensure you are choosing the correct product in a cost-effective manner.

PRINT PAPERS

SILK COATED

This stock is often considered the default choice for professional print. Silk coated stock has a slight sheen, giving vibrant colours, without a full gloss finish so it's still easy to read from.

UNCOATED

Without any kind of shine, uncoated stocks are the easiest to write on and are popular in business stationery items.

RECYCLED

We also offer a 100% Recycled Uncoated stock, made completely of recycled materials.

GLOSS COATED

For a real shine, you can choose our gloss coated stock. This stock gives your colours and photos an added vibrancy without the expense of added gloss lamination.

KRAFT

As an alternative to white and cream stocks, Kraft immediately stands out. Bear in mind that this is a brown stock when creating artwork; bright, contrasting colours will work but black ink is best.

CONQUEROR WOVE

We offer both white and cream stocks to choose from. These can quickly make any print look more professional.

WOODSTOCK PULP

You can still see the small fibres and grains of wood pulp. It's perfect for creating a natural look.

MOHAWK FELT CREAM

As our most textured option and with a slight cream tone, this stock will make any design feel more sophisticated. It's a popular choice for certificates and professional invites

TINTORETTO FEDRIGONI

Slightly textured and felt-marked on both sides, Tintoretto is our most premium stock choice. Felt-marked means that it is actually soft to the touch, for the ultimate luxury. It's a great choice for wedding stationery.

GOLD DUST

This pearlescent paper makes for very distinctive print. It's slightly golden in colour and dusted with a little glitter. Perfect for adding a hint of magic to your special occasion prints.

PRINT FINISHES

MATT LAMINATION

For a subtle yet highly sophisticated finish, matt lamination gives your print a smooth feel while reducing any glare. Matt laminated products have the added option for spot UV embellishments.

GLOSS LAMINATION

As the name suggests, gloss lamination adds a shiny coating to your work. Colours are made brighter and gradients are exaggerated – great for dramatic photography.

SOFT-TOUCH LAM

Also known as velvet lamination, soft-touch does exactly as it says on the tin – it makes your print soft to the touch. This is a very stylish and delicate print finish.

ANTIBACTERIAL LAM

Using small particles of silver ions, this lamination has natural antibacterial (Anti-Bac) properties. Keep your print, and the people who handle your print, safe from bacteria.

MATT / GLOSS ANTI-BAC

Matt Anti-Bac lamination is a smoother finish, perfect for clients who want to make a statement whilst keeping their customers safe. Gloss anti-bac lamination, adds a professional gloss finish.

FOILING

Add a flash of metallic colour to your designs with foiling – a sure-fire way to make your print more professional. Choose from gold, silver, rose gold, red, green, blue or holographic.

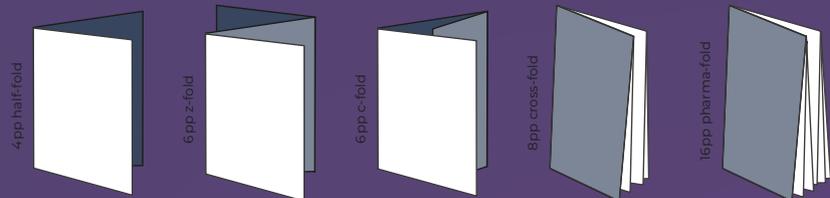

SPOT UV

Spot UV is used to highlight specific elements of your design with a highgloss coating. Use a high-build finish for even more texture or for something more subtle that still stands out, opt for a low-build finish.

PUR BOOKS (PERFECT BOUND BOOKLETS)

PUR bound books look professional and are beautifully finished. The squared off spine means they can be displayed, stored or stacked easily and neatly. With PUR bound books we can print on the spine too, so you can always see the title when the books are stacked.

If your document is between 40 and 700 pages, PUR perfect binding could be your perfect solution. With PUR book binding, we stack all the printed pages in a block and square them off. Then the pages are glued together along the spine with extremely strong PUR adhesive. The remaining three edges are then trimmed so that the edges of the block are perfectly neat. The printed cover is then wrapped around and glued on to the spine as well.

NCR (SETS, PADS & BOOKS)

In the printing industry the acronym NCR stands for No Carbon Required and it refers to a paper that has been treated to produce instant copies of the original, so no need for the old fashioned messy blue carbon paper! They can be customised to your exact requirements and are typically used as invoice books, receipt pads, school accident forms, waste transfer notes, hazardous waste notes, gas safety records and so on.

They can be customised with a logo, contact details, a form or table of some kind and an area for a signature, some also have terms and conditions printed to the reverse. They are ideally suited to any situation whereby the user requires instant multiple copies of what is being written.

You can add your logo, images or text to them and promote your brand.

Custom food packaging is 100% food safe and compliant with current legislation. It is also recyclable, making it environmentally friendly and an added selling point for your shop, restaurant or food business.

CUSTOM FOOD PACKAGING RANGE

We offer a range of different custom food packaging options for your products. They are all made from food-safe Delipac[®] paperboard (apart from the Doypacks) and can be customised with your graphics. Here is a brief summary but you can find full information on the separate pages.

Catering Trays: delivered flat, the food trays are available in a range of sizes. Suitable for a variety of foods but perfect for displaying the city's best sushi at its finest
Food Containers: available in four formats, they are ideal for foods like popcorn and chips due to their shape and are oil- and grease-resistant

Flip Lid Food Boxes: if you need protection for your products, the easy-to-use lid on these boxes makes them ideal for all kinds of items, especially street food and takeaways

Deluxe Food Boxes: these offer a sophisticated look thanks to their interesting shape and eye-catching fastenings. Choose from either the ribbon or handle closure and various sizes

Sandwich Boxes: these boxes are designed to hold sandwiches, croissants and other bakery items, protecting them and keeping hot food warm. Their elongated shape prevents the food from being squashed Doypacks: stand-up pouches in a choice of four materials to protect and preserve food products. Optional lamination, zip and hang hole.

CARDBOARD CUSTOM FOOD PACKAGING

Our personalised food packaging is made from a special paperboard called Delipac[®], with a series of features that set it apart from other materials:

- It has a water-based coating that makes it extremely oil- and grease-resistant
- It can be placed in the freezer or microwave without any issues
- It provides the food with good heat insulation
- It is resistant to ink migration
- In addition, we use low migration inks in our printers when customising the printed food packaging, to avoid any chance of the foodstuffs becoming contaminated. These components have also been laboratory-tested to ensure their safety.

Eco-friendly custom food packaging

Our personalised food packaging is an environmentally friendly solution for your food business. These days, sustainability and making eco-friendly choices is increasingly important and it is something that customers look out for when deciding which companies to buy from.

Therefore, our eco-friendly food packaging can add value to your business. It has the following properties:

- Biodegradable
- Compostable

An Unexpected Artist (Lucy Hay)

Based in St. George in North Wales, Lucy is inspired by her environment, the beauty of the North Wales countryside, the diversity of the Wildlife around her and the enormous warmth of the people that live there. Lucy's drawings and designs come from the buzzing bees in the garden, the pheasant in the field, the stag on the hill, the ducks in the pond, the ever-decreasing hedgehogs and of course dragons! Her inspiration comes from beautiful North Wales as well as her many experiences around the World. Lucy loves the idea of people wearing her art and therefore hand prints her designs onto luxurious cashmere blend scarves. These super soft accessories can be worn as scarves or as shawls and are a must-have for every season.

PRODUCT PHOTOGRAPHY

Sites such as Notonthehighstreet, Amazon, Etsy, even Auction sites like Ebay have all become commonplace for big product sellers. Not only do they demand great products, they also demand high quality photographs to support them. While in the shops, the salespeople, window displays, branding and luxury fittings might influence our purchases, on virtual platforms such as Amazon and Notonthehighstreet, all the convincing must be done by the sellers

From fashion accessories to food and drink, we are experienced with styling a wide variety of products for effective advertising and marketing shots.

We create clean, sharp, high resolution images for a number of brands.

Or you may require photos for your social media, printed projects and online projects.

LOCATION PHOTOGRAPHY

Our mobile photography studio service is a fantastic way of getting the photographs you want in a location that is convenient for you and your needs.

Not every business is looking for formal studio shots to display their products. This is why we also offer professional product photography on location. We can bring top-of-the-range lighting to use on-site, subject to your needs.

Shooting on location can be a great way of capturing emotive images that really tell your products' story.

Products shot on location often create a greater sense of desire amongst consumers than corporate cut-out shots. They help reflect your brand's values and offer the audience a tangible lifestyle ideal to connect with.
